2. What is your understanding of the words listed below. Give your examples.
misdeed, misconduct
crime, offence, wrongdoing
unlawful act, violation of the law, lawbreaking harm, sin
3. Why do people commit crimes?
4. What steps can society take to cope with crime?

The following expressions may be useful:

True... but...

This is my way of looking at it.

I think it goes further than that... a lot further.

Well, you see what I mean.

That's one way of looking at it. But...

You may be right... All the same...

That's what I thought...

And that's another thing.

There's much variety in..., etc.

Offences

(Mr. Morrison, Miss MacTaggart, detective Freizer, McLaut Sergeant, policeman)

the sound of the bagpipes

MM: Who's making this horrible noise? Madam, Jennie MacTaggart! For heaven's sake.

MMct: You've recognized me at last, John Morrison. You can say my name without joking.

MM: I've recognized you for the _____, with pretty sake would you go home?

MMct: Couldn't you have arrested me for _____ the peace? Then put my name in the charge book that could be me again. Would it note I'm only walking up, that made him very angry.

She is reading a newspaper at home.

MMct: Princess Ingrid ...stay...carefully visit...they would be holding a ball in her honor...a ball... there'll be all the rubies, diamonds right a jewelry, that would be _____. She will be wearing a tiara. She should have a tiara. They'll have to notice me. That shouldn't be impossible just a little bit of _____, offence with the gloves for fingerprints, dark net and the dark clothes. Don't worry this must be done.
