

THE HISTORY OF SOUTH AFRICA

KEGAN PAUL, TRENCH, TRÜBNER & Co., LTD.

BRITISH EMPIRE SERIES.

Large Post 8vo. 6s. per Volume.

Vol. II. BRITISH AFRICA. With an Introduction by J. SCOTT KELTIE, LL.D., Secretary of the Royal Geographical Society, and Four Maps. Second Edition (1901), with special Notes in the Appendix on the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony, and the Map of S. Africa brought up to date.

THE REMAINING VOLUMES ARE:

Vol. I. INDIA: Ceylon, Strait Settlements, British North Borneo, and Hong Kong. With an Introduction by Sir RAYMOND WEST, LL.D., K.C.I.E., and Two Maps.

Vol. III. BRITISH AMERICA. With Introductions to Canada by J. G. COLMER, and to the West Indies by Sir AUGUSTUS ADDERLEY, and Two Maps.

Vol. IV. AUSTRALASIA. With an Introduction by the Hon. Sir JOHN COCKBURN, K.C.M.G., M.D., and Two Maps.

Vol. V. GENERAL. With an Introduction by the Rt. Hon. LORD AVEBURY, P.C., F.R.S., and Two Maps.

"It (Vol. II.) has the great merit of bringing out the different points of view of many persons who have been, or are, responsible in part for the administration of British Africa, and thus the public is afforded an opportunity of ascertaining the policy underlying official action."

St. James's Gazette.

"The importance of the scheme consists in the fact that well-known officials, travellers, and experts have co-operated in the work . . . There are maps, . . . and no lack of recent statistics."—Standard.
