

K O R E A

TABLET IN SEOUL

KOREA

BY

ANGUS HAMILTON

WITH A NEWLY PREPARED MAP
AND NUMEROUS ILLUSTRATIONS

LONDON

WILLIAM HEINEMANN

1904

TO MY MOTHER

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

The Position of Russia in Manchuria—Comparative Estimate of Naval and Military Resources of Russia, Japan, and Korea Pp. xvii-xlii

CHAPTER I

Off the coast—Lack of survey intelligence—Island flora—Forgotten voyagers—Superstitions and beliefs—Outline of history Pp. 1-12

CHAPTER II

Physical peculiarities—Direction of advancement—Indications of reform and prosperity—Chemulpo—Population—Settlement—Trade . . . . . Pp. 13-23

CHAPTER III

Move to the capital—A city of peace—Results of foreign influence—In the beginning—Education—Shops—Costume—Origin—Posts and telegraphs—Methods of cleanliness . . . . . Pp. 24-42

CHAPTER IV

The heart of the capital—Domestic economy—Female slavery—Standards of morality—A dress rehearsal . . . . . Pp. 43-58

CHAPTER V

The Court of Korea—The Emperor and his Chancellor—The Empress and some Palace factions . . . . . Pp. 59-69