145 лет назад, в 1879 г. в Париже прошел «первый электрический салон живописи». Произведения искусства предстали перед публикой в свете П.Н. Яблочкова. До этого момента ничего подобного не происходило. По всему огромному помещению Дворца промышленности были расставлены десятки дуговых ламп.

145 years ago, in 1879, the "first electric painting salon" was held in Paris. The works of art were presented to the public in the light of P.N. Yablochkov. Up to this point, nothing like this had happened. Dozens of arc lamps were placed all over the huge room of the Palace of Industry.
