

PEEL CASTLE (FROM THE SOUTH-WEST).

Manx Crosses

OR

THE INSCRIBED AND SCULPTURED MONUMENTS
OF THE ISLE OF MAN FROM ABOUT THE END OF THE FIFTH TO THE BEGINNING OF THE —————THIRTEENTH CENTURY—————

BY

P. M. C. Kermode, F.S.A. Scot.

Hon. Memb. Vidensk-Selsk, Christiania

Fully illustrated from drawings of the Crosses specially prepared by the Author, founded upon rubbings, and carefully compared with photographs and with the stones themselves ; besides numerous figures in outline and a map showing distribution of the monuments

London

BEMROSE & SONS LIMITED, 4 SNOW HILL, E.C.
AND DERBY

1907

[All Rights Reserved]

TO THE

Manx People

This Account of a class of Monuments in which the Isle of Man is peculiarly rich—many of them our only contemporary records of the early Christian period, many of great artistic merit, and all the handiwork of our own Celtic and Scandinavian forefathers—is respectfully dedicated by the Author

