

COLLECTION
OF
BRITISH AUTHORS.
VOL. 563.

OLIVER CROMWELL'S LETTERS AND SPEECHES
BY
THOMAS CARLYLE.
IN FOUR VOLUMES.
VOL. IV.

OLIVER CROMWELL'S
LETTERS AND SPEECHES:

WITH ELUCIDATIONS.

BY THOMAS CARLYLE.

COPYRIGHT EDITION.

IN FOUR VOLUMES.

VOL. IV.

LEIPZIG
BERNHARD TAUCHNITZ
1861.

CONTENTS OF VOLUME IV.

PART X.

SECOND PROTECTORATE PARLIAMENT. 1657-58.

	Page
LETTER CCXV. To the Mayor of Newcastle: Whitehall, 18 Dec. 1656	1
Presbyterians and Independents.
— CCXVI. To Card. Mazarin: Whitehall, 26 Dec. 1656	3
Quarrel between Charles Stuart and his Brother.
SPEECH VI. To the Second Protectorate Parliament, 23 January 1656-7	7
Thanks for their Congratulation on the failure of Sindercomb's Plot.
KINGSHIP	16
LETTER CCXVII. To the same Parliament: Whitehall, 25 Dec. 1656	20
Case of James Nayler.
SPEECH VII. To the Second Protectorate Parliament, 31 March 1657	25
Reception of their Petition and Advice with their Offer of the Title of King. Returns pious thanks; craves time to consider; will then answer.
— VIII. To a Committee of the Same Parliament, 3 April 1657	28
Answers with praise as to the Petition and Advice generally, but as to the Title of King, with distinct though not emphatic No.
— IX. To the same Parliament, 8 April 1657	33
Would state his Doubts, if there were Opportunity given, — if there were some Conference, or the like, appointed.
— X. Conference with the Committee of Ninety-nine in regard to the Title of King, 11 April 1657	40
Difficulty as to how they shall proceed in this matter of Conferring.	