THE LONDON

GENERAL

MOURNING WAREHOUSE,

247 & 249, Regent Street.

THE Proprietors of this establishment, in respectfully addressing themselves to the attention of the Nobility, the Gentry, and the Public, beg leave to renew their thanks for the extraordinary support they have received. Every article necessary for a complete Outfit of Mourning, for either the family or household, may be had here, and made up, if required, at the shortest notice; whilst the attendance of competent persons connected with the establishment upon families of rank and of every respectable denomination in town or country, enables the proprietors or their assistants to at once suggest or supply everything necessary for the occasion, and suited to any grade or condition of the community. Skirts, &c., for Widowhood and for Family Mourning are always kept made up, and a note descriptive of the relation of the parties to the deceased will ensure at any time the proper supply of mourning being forwarded, both as to quality and distinction, according to the exigencies of the case; it being needful only to send dresses for patterns, when every requisite will be carefully prepared and chosen to render the appointments complete.
