

· · · · · Ä

COLLECTION OF
BRITISH AUTHORS.
VOL. CCLXXIV.

---

HISTORY OF ENGLAND BY LORD MAHON.

IN SEVEN VOLUMES.

VOL. VI.

HISTORY OF ENGLAND

FROM

THE PEACE OF UTRECHT TO THE PEACE OF VERSAILLES.

1713—1783.

BY LORD MAHON.

COPYRIGHT EDITION.

IN SEVEN VOLUMES. — VOL. VI.

1774—1780.

LEIPZIG

BERNHARD TAUCHNITZ

1854.

CONTENTS OF VOLUME VI.

A. D.	CHAPTER LI.	Page
1774.	Ill news from America . . . . .	1
	The Tea-ships . . . . .	2
	Tumult at Boston . . . . .	ib.
	The Boston Port Bill . . . . .	3
	Precedents alleged . . . . .	ib.
	The measure passes . . . . .	4
	The Massachusetts Government Bill . . . . .	5
	The "province of Quebec" . . . . .	6
	Recall of Governor Hutchinson . . . . .	7
	The "Yankees" . . . . .	8
	Lord Sandwich and Colonel Grant . . . . .	ib.
	Death of Louis the Fifteenth . . . . .	9
	Proceedings in Virginia . . . . .	ib.
	Solemn League and Covenant . . . . .	11
	Effects of the Boston Port Bill . . . . .	ib.
	Camp on Boston Common . . . . .	12
	Intrenchments on Boston Neck . . . . .	ib.
	General Congress at Philadelphia . . . . .	13
	Its first meetings . . . . .	14
	Two parties in presence . . . . .	15
	Letters to Lord Dartmouth . . . . .	ib.
	Declaration of Rights . . . . .	16
	The Carolina delegates . . . . .	17
	Address to the people of Canada . . . . .	ib.
	The "Committees of Safety" . . . . .	18
	The "Minute-men" . . . . .	19
	Dissolution of Parliament in England . . . . .	ib.
	New Elections . . . . .	20
	Wilkes installed as Lord Mayor . . . . .	ib.
	Serjeant Glynn . . . . .	21
1775.	Reappearance of Chatham in Parliament . . . . .	ib.
	He moves an Address to the King . . . . .	22
	The Duke of Cumberland and Dr. Price . . . . .	24
	Interviews between Chatham and Franklin . . . . .	25
	Solemn assurances from the latter . . . . .	26
	Chatham frames a Conciliatory Bill . . . . .	27
	His opening speech . . . . .	29
	Reply of Lord Sandwich . . . . .	ib.
	The Bill is rejected . . . . .	30
	Ill consequences of that event . . . . .	ib.
	Ministerial differences . . . . .	32
	Interview between Franklin and Lord Howe . . . . .	ib.
	Scheme of conciliation from Lord North . . . . .	33
	Ill received by the Bedford party . . . . .	ib.
	Resolutions moved by Burke . . . . .	34
	His admirable speech . . . . .	35
	Periods of 1704 and 1774 . . . . .	ib.
	CHAPTER LII.
	The winter in Massachusetts . . . . .	37
	The Stockbridge Indians . . . . .	ib.
	Expedition of British troops to Concord . . . . .	38

VI

CONTENTS.

A. D.	Page
1775.	First blood shed at Lexington . . . . . 38
	Retreat of the British . . . . . 39
	"Yankee-Doodle" and "Chevy Chase" . . . . . 40
	Colonel Israel Putnam . . . . . ib.
	American blockade of Boston . . . . . 41
	Benedict Arnold . . . . . 42
	Ticonderoga surprised . . . . . ib.
	Meeting of the second Congress at Philadelphia . . . . . 43
	Arrival of Franklin . . . . . ib.
	Continental paper-money . . . . . 44
	Measures to raise an army . . . . . ib.
	Washington chosen Commander-in-chief . . . . . 45
	His early life . . . . . 46
	His character . . . . . 47
	He sets out for Massachusetts . . . . . 56
	The British troops at Boston . . . . . ib.
	Generals Gage and Burgoyne . . . . . ib.
	Movements of the Americans . . . . . 57
	Battle of Bunker's Hill . . . . . 58
	Its results . . . . . 59
	Letters of General Gage . . . . . 62
	Speech of Patrick Henry . . . . . 63
	Proceedings of Congress . . . . . ib.
	"The Olive-branch" . . . . . 64
	Terms desired . . . . . 66
	Accession of Georgia . . . . . 67
	Hunting shirts . . . . . 68
	Washington's camp described . . . . . ib.
	Want of powder . . . . . 69
	General Gage returns to England . . . . . 70
	CHAPTER LIII.
	Public feeling in England . . . . . 71
	The City magistrates . . . . . 72
	Mission of Richard Penn . . . . . ib.
	Its ill reception . . . . . ib.
	The King's Speech . . . . . 73
	The Duke of Grafton retires from office . . . . . 74
	Opposition tactics . . . . . 75
	New Acts of Parliament . . . . . ib.
	Illness of Lord Chatham . . . . . 76
	His son flings up his commission . . . . . 77
	Burning of the town of Falmouth . . . . . 78
	Proceedings of Lord Dunmore in Virginia . . . . . 79
	His unjustifiable severities . . . . . ib.
	The Americans invade Canada . . . . . 80
	Expedition of Arnold . . . . . 81
	Assault upon Quebec . . . . . 82
	Montgomery falls . . . . . 83
1776.	Votes of Congress . . . . . ib.
	Blockade of Boston continued . . . . . ib.
	Washington's complaints . . . . . 85
	Condition of the British troops . . . . . 86
	Their preparations to re-embark . . . . . 87
	Their departure . . . . . ib.
	Sufferings of the loyalists . . . . . 88
	Medal struck by the insurgents . . . . . 89

CONTENTS.

A. D.		Page
1776.	Hiring of troops in Germany . . . . .	89
	Bitter jest by the King of Prussia . . . . .	91
	Warfare in South Carolina . . . . .	92
	Canada recovered by the British . . . . .	93
	Employment of the Indians as auxiliaries . . . . .	ib.
	General Howe arrives off Sandy Hook . . . . .	94
	And is joined by Lord Howe . . . . .	ib.
	Altered feelings of the Americans . . . . .	96
	Pamphlets by Thomas Paine . . . . .	97
	Political sermons . . . . .	ib.
	Declaration of Rights in Virginia . . . . .	98
	Mission of Silas Deane to France . . . . .	99
	Divisions in the Congress . . . . .	ib.
	Independence first proposed by Mr. Lee . . . . .	100
	A Committee appointed . . . . .	ib.
	A Draft Declaration . . . . .	ib.
	Adopted with amendments . . . . .	102
	And formally promulgated . . . . .	103
	"The United States" . . . . .	ib.
	General reflections . . . . .	104
	CHAPTER LIV.
	Washington at New York . . . . .	112
	Letters of Lord Howe . . . . .	113
	The British land in Long Island . . . . .	114
	Battle of Brooklyn . . . . .	ib.
	Danger and distress of the Americans . . . . .	115
	They re-embark . . . . .	116
	British overtures for peace . . . . .	117
	Committee appointed by the Congress . . . . .	ib.
	Interview with Lord Howe . . . . .	118
	Project to burn New York . . . . .	ib.
	Lines of Haerlem . . . . .	119
	New York entered by the British . . . . .	121
	Incendiary attempts . . . . .	122
	Provincial jealousies . . . . .	ib.
	Disorganisation of the American army . . . . .	123
	The barber-Captain . . . . .	ib.
	Dilatory measures of Congress . . . . .	124
	Mission of Franklin to France . . . . .	125
	Articles of Confederation . . . . .	126
	Gouverneur Morris . . . . .	ib.
	Samuel Adams . . . . .	127
	The loyalist minority in Congress . . . . .	ib.
	Overtures to Prince Charles Stuart . . . . .	128
	Pennsylvania and the single Chamber . . . . .	129
	Washington on the White Plains . . . . .	130
	Action near Chatterton's Hill . . . . .	ib.
	The British invade New Jersey . . . . .	131
	Retreat of the Americans . . . . .	ib.
	The "Sons of Liberty" . . . . .	132
	General Lee taken prisoner . . . . .	133
	Danger of Philadelphia . . . . .	ib.
	Prospects of Washington . . . . .	134
	His night-march on Trenton . . . . .	135
	And surprise of the Hessian troops . . . . .	136
1777.	His post beyond the Assanpink . . . . .	ib.