

SOUND CURRENCY 1895

A COMPENDIUM

OF

Accurate and Timely Information

ON

CURRENCY QUESTIONS

INTENDED FOR

WRITERS, SPEAKERS AND STUDENTS

---

REFORM CLUB SOUND CURRENCY COMMITTEE NEW YORK

1895

9761-228

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

U. S. COINAGE AND CURRENCY LAWS.

LAWS RELATING TO COINAGE .....	PAGE 2
Power granted by Constitution—Act of April 2, 1792, establishing a mint and regulating coinage—Act of May 8, 1792, copper coinage—Act of January 14, 1793, copper coinage—Act February 9, 1793, in reference to foreign coins—Subsequent legal tender legislation as to foreign coins—Act of March 3, 1795, regulating the mint and coins of the U. S.—Act of April 21, 1806, punishment of counterfeiting—Act of June 25, 1834, gold coins of U. S.—Act of January 18, 1837, coinage revision—Act of March 3, 1849, coinage of gold dollars and double eagles—Act of March 3, 1851, coinage of three-cent silver piece—Act of February 21, 1853, relative to half and quarter dollar, dime and half dime—Act of March 3, 1853, new coinage, assaying and regulation of dies—Act of February 21, 1857, legal tender quality of foreign coins revoked, nickel cent, purchase of bullion—Act of April 22, 1864, coinage of bronze cent, and legal tender of minor coins—Act of March 3, 1865, coinage of nickel three-cent pieces, limited legal tender—Act of May 16, 1866, coinage of five-cent piece—Act of March 3, 1871, redemption of copper and other token coins—Act of February 12, 1873, revising coinage laws—Act of January 29, 1874, coinage of foreign coins at the mint—Act of June 22, 1874, Revised Statutes of the U. S.—Act of March 3, 1875, coinage of twenty-cent piece—Act of April 17, 1876, issue of silver coins—Joint resolution, July 22, 1876, issue of silver coins, purchase of silver bullion—Act of February 28, 1878, to authorize standard silver dollar, purchase of bullion, monetary conference—Act of May 2, 1878, coinage of twenty-cent piece prohibited—Act of June 19, 1878, assaying of bullion—Act of March 3, 1879, transportation of securities, coin certificates—Act of June 9, 1879, redemption of silver coins, legal tender of silver coins—Act of May 26, 1882, gold coin for gold bullion—Act of August 7, 1882, transportation of silver coins—Act of August 4, 1886, issue of silver certificates, transportation of silver coins—Act February 19, 1887, retirement and recoinage of trade dollar—Act March 2, 1889, disposal of "silver profit fund"—Act July 14, 1890, purchase of silver bullion, issue of coin certificates—Act of September 26, 1891, amendment of section 3510, Revised Statutes—Act of September 26, 1890, discontinues the coinage of three-dollar and one-dollar gold pieces and three-cent nickel—Act of February 10, 1891, counterfeiting—Act of March 3, 1891, exchange of gold coins for bars—Act of November 1, 1893, purchase of silver bullion discontinued.
LAWS RELATING TO GOVERNMENT CURRENCY .....	22
Act of July 17, 1861, authorizing the issue of Treasury and $50,000,000 demand notes—Act of August 5, 1861, form and manner of issuing Treasury notes—Act of February 12, 1862, $10,000,000 additional demand notes—Act of February 25, 1862, issue of $150,000,000 legal tender United States notes—Act of March 17, 1862, demand notes made legal tender—Act of July 11, 1862, additional issue of $150,000,000 United States legal tender notes—Act of July 17, 1862, stamps received in payment of customs duties, fractional bank notes forbidden—Joint resolution January 17, 1863, non-interest bearing United States notes authorized—Act of March 3, 1863, $150,000,000 additional legal tender notes authorized, exchange of United States notes for interest bearing Treasury notes, issue of gold certificates, $50,000,000 fractional currency—Act of June 30, 1874, Treasury notes bearing interest, redemption of Treasury and United States notes, temporary loan—Act of January 28, 1865, issue of Treasury notes—Act of March 2, 1865, conversion of Treasury notes into bonds—Act of April 12, 1863, retirement of United States notes—Act of March 2, 1867, issue of temporary loan certificates in payment of compound interest notes—Act February 4, 1868, suspension of further reduction of the currency—Act of July 25, 1868, redemption and retirement of compound interest notes—Act of March 18, 1869, to strengthen public credit—Act of July 12, 1870, redemption of 3 per cent. temporary loan certificates—Act of June 20, 1874, amount of United States notes fixed—Revised Statute relating to currency—Act January 14, 1875, resumption of specie payments—Act of May 31, 1878, further retirement of United States notes forbidden—Act of August 4, 1886, issue of silver certificates.
LAWS RELATING TO BANK CURRENCY .....	31
Act of February 25, 1791, incorporation of the Bank of the United States—Act June 27, 1792, counterfeiting—Act of April 10, 1816, Second Bank of the United States—Act of February 25, 1863, to provide a national bank currency—Act of June 3, 1864, National Bank Act—Act of March 3, 1865, formation of national banks—Act of July 13, 1873, tax on State banks—Act of March 2, 1867, certificates of temporary loans—Act of March 26, 1867, tax on county or municipal notes—Act of March 3, 1869, reports of national banks—Act of July 12, 1870, increase of national bank circulation—Revised Statutes of the United States—Act of June 20, 1874, organization of national banks—Act of June 23, 1874, destruction of notes—Act of January 19, 1875, limitation of aggregate amount of national bank notes removed—Act of February 8, 1875, tax on notes other than national bank—Act of March 3, 1875, printing of the notes—Act of February 14, 1880, conversion of national gold banks—Act of July 12, 1882, corporate existence of national banks extended—Act of March 3, 1887, reserve cities—Act of July 14, 1890, 5 per cent. redemption fund.
APPENDIX .....	45
Coins of the United States, authority for coining and changes in weight and fineness, total amount coined, legal tender quality.
INDEX .....	47

THE WORLD'S CURRENCIES.

UNITED STATES .....	50
Gold—Silver—United States Notes ("Greenbacks")—United States Treasury Notes of 1890—Gold certificates—Currency certificates—Denominations—Legal tender qualities—National Bank notes—Issue limited—Central redemption agency—Denominations—Shareholders' liability—Quasi-legal tender—Number and Capital of Banks—Tax on State Banks—Statement of circulation, January 1, 1895.
GREAT BRITAIN AND COLONIES .....	51
Double standard in England—Exportation of gold, 1785—Silver coinage prohibited, 1793—Gold standard legalized, June 22, 1816—The Sovereign—Weight—Monetary Unit—Actual Circulation—Right to have gold coined—Price paid for bullion sold to Bank of England—Silver coins—Denominations—Weight—Limited legal tender—Ratio—Coined only for Government account—Bank of England—Founded, 1694, by Montague—Present charter, 1844—Issue and banking departments—Circulation—How guaranteed—Reserve may be one-fifth in silver—Actual issues made only against gold—Permanent debt of State to bank partial basis of issue—Notes legal tender except in payment to branches of the bank—Not legal tender in Scotland and Ireland—Joint stock banks—Banknote issue in Scotland—Uncovered issues—Ireland, banks—Issue of notes—Statement of outstanding bank notes, 1893—Estimated Stock of Money in Great Britain.

	PAGE
Canada .....	52
No gold coinage of her own—United States and Great Britain coins used—Amount of gold in reserves—Silver coinage from 1870—Subsidiary in character—Total coinage, $6,300,000—Dominion Notes—Limited to $25,000,000—Redeemable in gold—Secured by reserve, gold and securities—Banks—Limit of note issue—Daily redemption—Elasticity of the system—Aggregate circulation, November 1, 1894—Estimated Stock of money in the Dominion of Canada.
Australasia .....	53
Monetary system like Great Britain's—Banking in Victoria—Basis of present system—Subscribed capital of £250,000, half paid up—Number of Banks and branches—Circulation and deposits—Banking in Queensland—South Australia—Western Australia—New South Wales—New Zealand.
British India .....	53
Fundamental Monetary law—Standard—History of the Free Coinage of Silver—How rupees are estimated—Legal tender value of rupee—Coinage charge—Ratio—Gold not legal tender—Denominations, etc., of gold and silver coins of British India—Banks previous to 1861—Issues of present currency notes—Geographical circles of issue—Exchange gold or bullion—Reserve invested in Government securities—Maximum limit—Amount of circulation—Estimated stock of money.
Minor British Colonies .....	54
Except as noted monetary systems same as England's—The Bermudas—Turk and Caicos Islands—Newfoundland—British Honduras, Banks of issue—Recent suspension of specie payments—Mauritius, Africa—The Gambia, Africa—Sierra Leone, Africa—Gold Coast, Africa—Gibraltar—Cyprus—British Guiana, Bank notes—Ceylon—The Straits Settlements, silver, legal tender; Bank notes, banks bound to maintain specie; circulation—Hong Kong, silver dollar, Bank notes, Banks, circulation—Cape of Good Hope.
GERMAN EMPIRE .....	55
Foundation of present system in monetary laws of 1871-73—Retirement of old gold coins, current silver coins—Gold coins—Effect of the law of 1873—Silver—Coinage limited—Old coins called in—Thalers—Sale of silver—Loss by abrasion—Denominations, weight and comparative value of coins—Imperial Treasury notes, legal tender—Amount—Bank notes—Banks of issue—Imperial Bank—Tax on issues above limit—Renewal of charter—Total circulation—Estimated stock of money in the Empire.
AUSTRIA-HUNGARY .....	56
Monetary system established, 1857-1858, 1867, 1870-1887—Coinage of silver suspended, 1879—Legally single silver standard—Practically no metallic money in circulation—Paper money—Premium on silver up to 1878—Currency reform—New system gold monometallic—Coins of new currency—Gold, denominations, weight, etc., of coins—Silver coins—Coinage charges—Ratio—Coinage of silver—Limited legal tender—Monetary agreement between Austria and Hungary—Coins of the new system—State Treasury notes—Mutual guaranty—Maximum issue—Circulation—Denominations—Legal tender—Bank notes—One bank of issue—Loans to the State—Bank pays taxes—Debt of State to bank—Circulation—Must be covered above certain limit—Notes above metallic reserve must be guaranteed—Legal tender—Renewal of charter—Estimated stock of money.
THE LATIN UNION (France, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland and Greece) .....	58
Previous union—The money system—Ratio—Increase in supply of gold—Causes substitution of gold for silver in the monetary systems—Formation of the Latin Union, 1865—To maintain double standard—Each State to receive the coins manufactured by the others—Legal tender value—First convention—Greece joins the Union—Union of last 15 years—Provides for free coinage of both metals—Bimetallic—Depreciation of silver limits coinage—Compact prolonged five years—Coins of each country to be received by the Treasuries of the Union—Union terminable upon one year's notice—Balances due after termination of Union to be paid in gold or bills of exchange on the debtor State—Latin Union changed to gold standard—Coinage of gold unlimited, silver suspended—The ratio still 18½ to 1—Coinage charges—Legal tender.
France —Bank notes—Bank of France and branches—Foundation charter, 1800—Renewal of—Capital—Note limitation, 4,000,000,000 francs—Legal tender—Estimated stock of money in France.....	59
Belgium —National Bank of Belgium—Only joint stock company to issue notes—Individuals and associations free to issue bank notes—State receives a share of bank profits—Government may veto any measure—Branches and agencies—Note limitations—Amount of bank notes—Estimated stock of money in Belgium.....	59
Italy —State notes—Bank syndicate—Government borrows $200,000,000—Banks issue notes in representation of amount loaned—Syndicate dissolved—Notes become a state debt—$70,000,000 state notes outstanding—Bank notes—No state bank—Six banks of issue—Limitations on note issues—Legal limit—Forced currency abolished—Additional notes to be covered by a second metallic reserve—A fusion of banks in 1893—New bank of Italy—Limit of bank circulations—Notes beyond limit may be issued when covered in full by metallic reserve—$233,000,000 bank notes outstanding—Estimated stock of money in Italy.....	60
Switzerland —Bank notes—Recent banks—Oldest banks—Federal law on issue and redemption of bank notes—Bank of issues must have government authority—Amount of issue regulated by the Federal Assembly—Metallic reserve—Circulation—Redemption of notes—The Confederation hereafter to take charge of note issue—State bank decided upon, 1894—Plan of the bank—Incorporation of present banks as branches—Obligatory acceptance of bank notes not decreed by Confederation except in case of war—Estimated stock of money in Switzerland.....	60
Greece —Bank notes—Forced currency—Metallic reserves merely nominal—Irredeemable paper money rules—Amount of bank notes—Government notes—Gold at a premium—Estimated stock of money.....	61
SPAIN .....	61
Monetary system that of Latin Union, with gold 25-peseta piece added—Gold coinage free—Delay in getting coins—Silver coinage only on account of state—Ratio 15½ to 1—Legal tender coins—Bank notes—Bank of Spain—State no share in, but may require advances—Metallic reserve of 25 per cent.—Its notes legal tender—$185,000,000 outstanding—Premium on gold—Estimated stock of money in Spain.
SCANDINAVIAN UNION (Sweden, Norway and Denmark) .....	61
Monetary union—Convention 1873-1875—Gold standard—Gold and silver coins—Coinage of gold unlimited—Silver coined on account of State only—Limited legal tender—Exchange of fractional coins for gold at the public treasuries.

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

iii

	PAGE
Sweden —State bank of issue—Banks of issue may be established by joint stock companies—Char- ters—Liability of shareholders unlimited—Right to issue notes—Capital of Bank of Sweden— Legal currency guaranteed by the Constitution—Circulation limited—Private bank notes not legal tender—The limit of their issue elastic—Statement of notes issued—Uncovered notes of both banks.....	62
Norway —Bank notes—Central bank of issue—Bank of Norway, founded in 1814—Capital and organization—Circulation limited—Notes legal tender—Reserve—One-third placed with foreign correspondents.....	62
Denmark —Bank notes—National bank, founded in 1818—Only bank of issue—Capital—Note issue over metallic reserve limited—Aggregate circulation—Estimated stock of money in Scandinavian Union.....	62
THE NETHERLANDS Adopts double standard, 1816—Silver standard, 1847—Double standard, 1875—Monetary unit— Gold and silver coins—Only standard gold and silver coins are unlimited legal tender—Coinage of silver suspended in 1877—Colonial monetary system the same—Bank notes—Bank of Nether- lands—Chartered in 1814—Renewed three times—Terminates 1914—Not a State bank—Monopoly of issue—Surveillance over Bank by Government—Note issue not absolutely fixed—Security of— Metallic reserve, 40 per cent.—$80,000,000 of notes in circulation—Government notes—$3,000,000 in circulation—Estimated stock of money in the Netherlands.....	63
RUSSIA Fundamental monetary law 1885—Unit the silver rouble—Coinage ratio, 15:1—Gold coins— Coinage of gold unlimited—Mint Charges—Silver—Coined only for State account—Bank notes— National Bank of Russia, a State bank, capital and reserve fund furnished by Government—State cannot touch these—State shares profits—Paper money of Russia issued by Bank—Denominations of credit roubles—Amount of notes depend on exigencies of the Government—Estimated stock of money in Russia.....	63
PORTUGAL Monetary system established, 1834—Gold monometallic—Unit—Gold coins, weight, fineness and value in U. S. gold coin—Silver coins—Bank notes—Bank of Portugal and several others to issue notes—Not legal tender, except to public treasuries—Bank notes to represent gold ex- clusively and be paid in that metal—Estimated stock of money in Portugal.....	64
TURKEY Monetary system—Gold coins—Mint charges—Silver—Coins—Weight of coins—Ratio of coin- age lowered—Coinage of silver suspended—Bank notes—Imperial Ottoman Bank sole bank of issue—Notes payable in gold—Reserve generally greater than circulation—Estimated stock of money in Turkey.....	65
ROUMANIA Latin Union system introduced—Double standard abrogated—Single gold standard 1890— Bank notes—National Bank of Roumania—Notes issued by law of 1890—40 per cent. metallic re- serve.....	65
SERVIA Monetary system like that of Latin Union—Coins—Silver limited legal tender—Country gold monometallic—Bank of Issue—National Bank of Servia—Location and branch—Issue three times metallic reserve—Circulation—Metallic reserve.....	65
PERSIA Monetary unit the silver kran—Coins—Gold—Unit—Circulates only as a commodity—Value of the toman in United States gold coin—Bank notes—Imperial bank—Head offices at Teheran— Branches—Incorporated under an English charter—Note issues limited to \$4,000,000—Coin reserve at first 50 per cent.—Reduced to 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ %.....	65
CHINA Silver standard country—Actual currency is cash—Varieties of cash—Depreciation of, measured in taels—Silver by weight, medium of exchange in large transactions—Assay of coins—Denom- inations used in indicating weight of silver—Variations in different parts of China—Banks numer- ous—Capital small and not under Government control—Circulation limited to immediate vicinity.....	65
JAPAN Currency before and after admission of foreigners—Silver and gold—Early ratio, 1 to 4—Ratio soon changed—The legal money—Basis of new monetary system 1871 the Mexican dollar—Double standard established—Gold rated too high—Change in coinage, 1872—Actual Japanese standard now silver—Attempt to drive out the Mexican dollar—Japanese trade dollar discontinued—The silver yen made legal tender—Drives out the Mexican dollar—Japan established as a silver country by a silver loan—Government and bank notes—Gold and silver reserve—Bank notes outstanding.....	66
MEXICO Single silver standard—Provisions of the monetary system—Mints open to all for coinage of gold or silver—Charges—Government dues payable in any legal coin—Circulation of Mexican sil- ver dollar—Denominations, fineness and weight of gold and silver coins.....	66
CENTRAL AMERICAN STATES Accounts in Costa Rica, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua and Salvador kept in silver dollars— Circulation silver supplanted by paper—Guatemala circulation of bank notes, $\frac{1}{2}$ uncovered—Costa Rica—Circulation—At par with fractional silver—Honduras—One bank—May issue notes which are legal tender.....	67
SOUTH AMERICAN STATES Chile—Legally double standard—Gold all exported—Really on silver basis—Real medium de- preciated paper—Monetary unit—Coinage restricted to account of State—Free coinage of gold au- thorized—Actual circulation paper currency and bank notes—Nominal value guaranteed to the ex- tent of 50 per cent.—Gold at a premium of 250 per cent in 1893—Paper currency to be redeemed in gold July 1, 1896—Cease to be legal tender after January 1, 1897—Banks consolidated into Bank of Chile —Similar to Bank of England—Argentine Republic—Attempt to establish a coinage system, 1875— Attempted in 1881 with more success—Gold coins full legal tender—Coinage and use of silver re- stricted—Actual currency depreciated paper—Amount in circulation—Bolivia—Silver standard— Bank of Bolivia—Circulation—Reserve—Brazil—Gold standard 1849—Gold coins, weight of—Silver legal tender limited—Present money inconvertible paper—Specie payments suspended, 1864—His- tory of paper issues—Banks of issue—Banco do Brazil—Banco da Republica—These two united as Banco da Republica do Brazil—Ultimate liability with the Government—Columbia—Uruguay—Ven- ezuela—Banks of issue private.....	67
SITUATION PRINCIPAL BANKS OF ISSUE .....	68
APPROXIMATE STOCKS OF MONEY IN PRINCIPAL COUNTRIES .....	69