

PRESS CRITICISMS

“The real case against the Boer Government cannot be summed up more tersely than it is summed up by Dr. Hillier.”—The Times, October 27th, 1899.

“If any man is thoroughly conversant with Outlander politics, that man is Dr. Alfred Hillier. The importance, therefore, of his demolition of Miss Olive Schreiner’s sloppily sentimental manifesto to the American people cannot be estimated too highly.”—Pall Mall Gazette, November 2nd, 1899.

“Dr. Hillier knows the Boers well.”—Daily Chronicle, December 27th, 1899.

“By far the most valuable contribution to the number (January Fortnightly)<sup>5</sup> is Dr. Hillier’s really statesmanlike survey of ‘The Issues at Stake in South Africa.’”—Spectator.

“Dr. Alfred Hillier’s masterly article in The Times was copied into most of the papers all over America, east and west.”—Beatrice Harraden in The Daily Mail.

“We believe Mr. Bryce, while stating that he had not read the article (“Mr. Bryce’s Manifesto to the Americans,” May Fortnightly), declared that it did not require any reply. We doubt if that will be the view of even strong Liberals who will take the trouble to read the crushing and powerful criticism.”—Aberdeen Journal, June 2nd, 1900.
