

LEIGHTON, BROS.

FOREGROUND—THREE TINTS, AND HIGH LIGHT,

Ä

A 173
139

HINTS

FOR

SKETCHING TREES FROM NATURE,

IN WATER COLOURS.

WITH NUMEROUS ILLUSTRATIONS.

BY

THOMAS HATTON.

---

SEVENTH EDITION.

---

LONDON :

GEORGE ROWNEY & CO.,

MANUFACTURING ARTISTS' COLOURMEN,

52, RATHBONE PLACE ; AND 29, OXFORD STREET, W.

Ä

LONDON :

HENDERSON, RAIT, AND FENTON, PRINTERS, MARVLEBONE LANE, W

P R E F A C E.

---

THE following Hints are offered to the notice of the Amateur from a conviction that it is not so much how to draw as how to see that is required in Sketching from Nature. The work accordingly consists rather of observations on the various appearances of trees, and the means of interpreting them, than of instructions in details of manipulation, which are to be found in abundance in other works.

78, SHIP STREET, BRIGHTON.

CONTENTS.

---

CHAPTER I.

INTRODUCTION.

	PAGE
WHAT A SKETCH OUGHT TO BE—A “STUDY” MUST FIRST BE ATTAINED—A BEGINNER’S NOTION OF A TREE—DEXTERITY IN MECHANICAL PERFORMANCE NOT PROFICIENCY IN ART—WHY ARTISTS REPEAT THEMSELVES—LIGHT AND SHADE GOVERN FORM AS WELL AS COLOUR—BREADTH—CHARACTER, AND ITS ANALOGY—MULTIPLICITY AND MASS—TREES TO BE STUDIED IN THE ORDER OF THEIR DISTANCE—DECISION ACQUIRED THERE- BY—LIMITS OF FOREGROUND—MATERIALS AND PRELIMIN- ARIES . . . . .	7

---

CHAPTER II.

BREADTH.

BREADTH THE EVIDENCE OF A MASTER HAND—ITS ESSENCE IS SIMPLICITY—INSTANCES: STANDING CORN, THE WILLOW, ETC. —A FEW DECIDED TINTS A MEANS OF ENSURING IT—STUDIES IN SEPIA ADVISABLE FOR FIRST ATTEMPTS—TREATMENT OF DISTANCE, MIDDLE GROUND AND FOREGROUND—OF LIGHTS AND SHADOWS—THE PRACTICE OF COLOUR TO BE APPROACHED BY GRADUAL STEPS, REFERRING CONSTANTLY TO SIMPLE PRINCIPLES . . . . .	23
---	----