

A

MEMORIALS

OF

OXFORD,

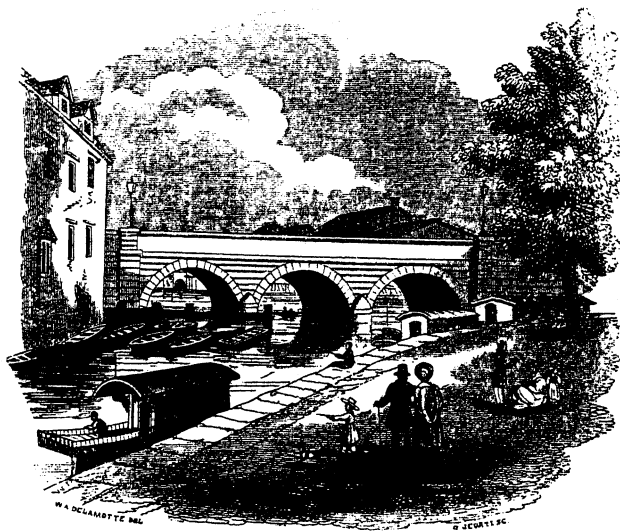

BY

JAMES INGRAM, D. D.

PRESIDENT OF TRINITY COLLEGE.

THE ENGRAVINGS BY JOHN LE KEUX,

FROM DRAWINGS BY F. MACKENZIE.

VOLUME III.

OXFORD: JOHN HENRY PARKER;

H. SLATTER, AND W. GRAHAM.

CHARLES TILT, LONDON.

MDCCCXXXVII.

A

525
70

MEMORIALS

OF

OXFORD,

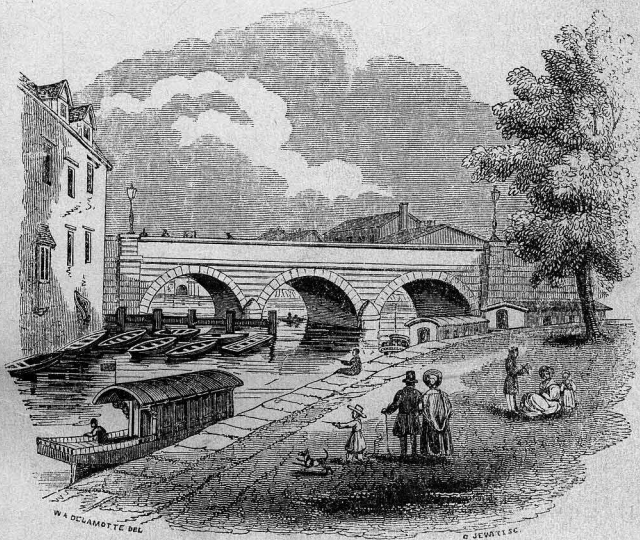

BY

JAMES INGRAM, D. D.

PRESIDENT OF TRINITY COLLEGE.

THE ENGRAVINGS BY JOHN LE KEUX,

FROM DRAWINGS BY F. MACKENZIE.

VOLUME III.

OXFORD: JOHN HENRY PARKER;

H. SLATTER, AND W. GRAHAM.

CHARLES TILT, LONDON.

MDCCCXXXVII.

Гос. орд. Ленина
БИБЛИОТЕКА СССР
им. В. И. ЛЕНИНА

U-46428-49

1926 $\frac{17}{44}$

CONTENTS OF VOL. III.

GENERAL HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY AND CITY.

Walls of the city, their great antiquity, &c. P. 1 The castle. 2 Ross of Warwick. 2 Other ancient authors who mention Oxford. 3 Oxford in the Saxon times. 3 — under the Norman kings. 4 Henry III. in Oxford. 5 The ‘Provisions of Oxford’. 4 Royal proclamation in Saxon, with an English translation of it. . 6 Walter de Merton, chancellor. . 7 The word UNIVERSITAS, note. . 7 Increased authority of the chancellor. 8 Ancient municipal jurisdiction. 10 CHARTERS. 11–14 Police. 14 Population, &c. 15 City mace. 16 ABSTRACT OF CHARTERS GRANTED TO THE UNIVERSITY. 17–27 Charter of 29th Edward III. . 17 Agreement respecting the juris-	diction of the hundred of north-gate. 20 Agreement between the university and city. 21 Charter of Henry IV. 1407. . 22 Charter of 13th Eliz. 1571. . 22–26 Dates of parliaments holden in Oxford. 26 —— law terms kept. 26 Comparative statement of the number of members of the university at different periods. . 26 Judge Blackstone’s analysis of the great charter of 1635, 11th Car. I. 27 ABSTRACT OF CHARTERS GRANTED TO THE CITY. 28–32 Charter of Henry II. 28 — 1st John, 1199. 29 — 41st Henry III. 1257. . 30 — 29th Edward I. 30 — 1st Edward III. 30 — 3rd James I. 31 — 16th Charles II. 32 Corporation reform act. 32
---	--

OXFORD CASTLE.

Castles anterior to the Norman conquest. 1 D’Oiley’s tower. 2 The original castle called mota. . 2	The word moat explained, note. . 2 A Saxon castle here. 3 — the residence of the Saxon kings. 3
--	--

Saxon remains	4	Harris	8
Inquisition of 5 Edw. III. mentions various buildings	4	The empress Maud besieged in the castle	9
The well and well-room	5	The ground plan and description	11-13
St. George's tower used as a campanile	5	The castle mills	14
Structure of the tower	7	The new buildings	15
Saxon crypt, discovered by Mr.		The chapel	16

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS.

The art of printing introduced into England by William Caxton.	1	during the troubles of Charles I. 8
— London, about 1475	2	A patent granted to the university in 1632.
— Oxford, 1478	3	THE SHELDONIAN THEATRE
— St. Alban's, 1480	3	First work printed there
List of the earliest specimens of Oxford printing, note	3	THE CLARENDON PRESS
R. Atkyns' account of F. Corsellis	4	First sheet worked there, note
Antony à Wood's account of printing in Oxford, note	5	UNIVERSITY PRINTING HOUSE.
The Oxford press dormant from 1520 to 1585	6	First sheet worked there.
All the other presses in England, except London, silent for the same period	6	Privilege of printing granted usually by sovereign princes.
A new press established in Oxford by the earl of Leicester in 1585	7	This power possessed by the chancellor of Oxford so early as 1518
Joseph Barnes, the university printer, and his successors, note	8	Delegates of the press.
The first Greek and Hebrew publications	8	Character and importance of the Oxford press
Employment of the Oxford press		Engraved devices used in the title-pages of Oxford books
		The Clarendon Building
		Buildings of the present 'University printing house'

THE OBSERVATORY.

Roger Bacon's observatory on the tower of Sunningwell church. . .	1	The upper room of the tower of the Schools used as an observatory	3
— at Grandpont, called 'Friar Bacon's study'	2	Dr. Wallis.	3
Sir Henry Savile's foundation . .	2	Stable hall appropriated to the Savilian professors	3
Professor John Greaves	2	Observatory erected upon it. . .	3