OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

“ One of the most valuable contributions that has ever been made to the cause of general knowledge and national education.”

STANDARD, Oct. 28, 1835.

“ Some of the later volumes rank among the most useful and elegant contributions to modern literature.”—ECCLECTIC REVIEW, Dec. 1, 1835.

“ A rich library of universal knowledge.”—MONTHLY REVIEW, Nov. 1, 1835.

“ It is gratifying to observe with what unflagging spirit this series of publications is carried on by Dr. Lardner. It is the first instance of a literary undertaking of such vast extent having proved thoroughly successful in our country, and it is an instance in which success has been well and thoroughly deserved.”—EXAMINER, Sept. 18, 1836.

THE SUBURBAN GARDENER AND VILLA COMPANION :

Comprising the choice of a Suburban or Villa Residence, or of a situation on which to form one; the arrangement and furnishing of the house; the laying out, planting, and culture of the garden and grounds; and the management of the Villa farm, including the dairy and poultry. The whole adapted for grounds from one perch to fifty acres and upwards in extent; and intended for the instruction of those who know little of gardening and rural affairs, and more particularly for the use of ladies. Illustrated by numerous Engravings.

By J. C. LOUDON, F. L. S. H. S. &c.

London: Printed for the Author; and sold by LONGMAN and Co.

On the 1st of July will be published, price 2s. 6d. Part I. of a
HISTORY OF BRITISH BIRDS.

By WILLIAM YARRELL, F.L.S., Secretary to the Zoological Society.

This work will be completed in 2 vols. 8vo.; will contain a greater number of British Birds than has yet been included in any work on the same subject; will be illustrated by an Engraving of each Species, executed on Wood by Thompson, from drawings made in every practicable instance from living examples of the Birds; and additionally embellished by numerous pictorial and other illustrative Vignettes.

On the 2d of October will be published, price 2s. 6d. Part I. of a
HISTORY OF BRITISH REPTILES.

By THOMAS BELL, F.R.S., Professor of Zoology, in King's College, London.

This work will be completed in 1 thin vol. 8vo.; will contain an Elucidation of the Habits, a distinctive description of the Species, their geographical distribution, and the history of the transformation of all the amphibious forms of this interesting, though small, and but little-known group of vertebrate animals. In addition to a figure of each Species, the work will contain many Illustrations of Structure, Development, and Transformation.

On the 1st of August will be completed, in 1 vol. 8vo., price 28s.
 Part I to IX. being now ready, price 2s. 6d. each.

A HISTORY OF BRITISH QUADRUPEDS.

By THOMAS BELL, F.R.S., Professor of Zoology, in King's College, London.

Illustrated by a figure of each subject, engraved in the first style of the art on wood, of every British animal, together with numerous Vignette tail-pieces. "Whether the scientific details, the clear, skilful, and popular manner in which the descriptive materials are worked up be regarded, or attention given to the decorative department—the wood-cuts, the vignettes, and the topography—both the general reader, and the naturalist, will find abundant materials for the highest gratification.—ANALYST.

In 2 vols. 8vo. price 2l. 6s. Illustrated by nearly 400 beautiful Wood-cuts.

A HISTORY OF BRITISH FISHES.

By WILLIAM YARRELL, F.L.S., Secretary to the Zoological Society.

This work, which contains a complete history of the Ichthyology of Great Britain, including many species never before noticed, is embellished with 240 FIGURES OF FISHES, mostly taken from the objects themselves, and 145 ILLUSTRATIVE VIGNETTES, drawn and engraved by the most eminent Artists, and no pains have been spared to render it worthy of public estimation.

"The first of these hand-books—"books that we may take to the fire with us," and within the power of almost every reader's purse—is now finished; and we have in Mr. Yarrell's "Natural History of British Fishes," an earnest of the able execution of the Series, and of the elegant and reasonable form in which they are to be presented to the public. We hail the appearance of this book as the dawn of a new era in the Natural History of England."

QUARTERLY REVIEW, April.
