

HOW THE UNITED STATES
BECAME A NATION

Th. Jefferson

LH 69-1
160

HOW THE UNITED STATES BECAME A NATION

BY

JOHN FISKE

With Illustrations and Map

BOSTON, U.S.A.

GINN & COMPANY, PUBLISHERS

The Athenæum Press

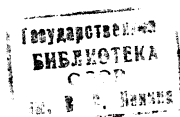

1904

COPYRIGHT, 1887, 1904
BY GINN & COMPANY

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

64.7

110271-68

CONTENTS

	PAGE
THE PERIOD OF WEAKNESS	5
Conditions of American progress. Hamilton's measures. Whisky insurrection. Indian War. Rise of parties. "Citizen" Genet. Jay's treaty. Troubles with France. Alien and sedition laws. Kentucky and Virginia resolutions. Death of Washington. Downfall of the Federalist party. The Louisiana Purchase. Exploration of Oregon. The Tripolitan War. Burr and Hamilton. Embargo.
SECOND WAR WITH GREAT BRITAIN.	75
Strength of the Republicans. Declaration of war. Naval victories. The war in the Northwest. The war on the Lakes. The war in the South. Treaty of Ghent.
THE RISE OF THE DEMOCRACY	107
"The era of good feeling." Florida. Monroe doctrine. Growth of the nation. Growth of slavery. The Missouri Compromise. The young West. Whigs and Democrats. Tariffs. Nullification. A new era. The spoils system. Whigs come into power. Oregon and Texas.
THE SLAVE POWER.	151
War with Mexico. Wilmot Proviso. California. Effects of the Compromise. Kansas-Nebraska bill. The struggle for Kansas. Dred Scott. The crisis.	