MUCH of the material for this volume has been gathered from manuscript sources, chiefly in the archives of Switzerland—a fact here mentioned in order that the writer may acknowledge the kindness with which the fullest opportunities were granted for the prosecution of his researches. He is under particular obligations to Mr. von Stürler, the Chancellor of Berne; to Mr. J. J. Hisely, of Lausanne, whose stores of mediæval learning have enriched the publications of the Société d'Histoire de la Suisse romande; to Mr. Victor Cérésolle, also of Lausanne, an ardent and successful explorer in the Archives of Venice; and to Mr. P. A. Segesser, of Lucerne, the learned editor of the second and third volumes of the national collection of Eidgenössische Abschiede.
