

173
A 172
GOLDEN RULES

A PRACTICAL GUIDE

FOR

PENCIL AND COLOUR

SKETCHERS FROM NATURE.

BY

WALTER CRAYON.

FOURTH EDITION,

REVISED, EXTENDED, AND ILLUSTRATED.

LONDON:

LECHERTIER, BARBE, & CO.,

ARTISTS' COLOURMEN,

60, REGENT STREET, W.

ENTERED AT STATIONERS' HALL.

PRINTED BY BRAIN & CO., BOVAY PLACE, HOLLOWAY, N

PART I.
ON SKETCHING IN PENCIL.

PART I.

SECTION I.

On the Difficulties attending Learning to Sketch.

SECTION II.

Lessons on Sketching.—Les. I., page 29, on the Selection of a Sketching Station, and the Composition of a Subject.—Les. II., page 32, on Representing Characteristic Aspect, Trees, Foliage, Herbage, Animals, &c.

SECTION III.

Further Lessons on Sketching.—Les. I., page 53, on the True Principles of Sketching with reference to the Horizon-line and Point of Sight, &c.—Les. II., page 60, on Vanishing Points.—Les. III., page 66, on the Horizon-line Level.—Les. IV., page 73, on the True Limits of a Sketch.—Les. V., page 81, on Useful Sketching Preliminaries.—Les. VI., page 83, on matters to be observed while Sketching.—Les. VII., page 86, on Receding Surfaces, &c.—Les. VIII., page 89, Concluding Hints.

