

HISTORY

Ä

OF

THE UNITED STATES,

FROM

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AMERICAN CONTINENT TO
THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

BY GEORGE BANCROFT,

FORMERLY AMBASSADOR AT THE COURT OF ST. JAMES'S.

IN SEVEN VOLUMES

VOL. III.

A New Edition.

LONDON:

GEORGE ROUTLEDGE AND SONS,
BROADWAY, LUDGATE HILL.

1866.

Ä

CONTENTS.

---

CHAPTER I.

AMERICA CLAIMS LEGISLATIVE INDEPENDENCE OF ENGLAND— PELHAM'S ADMINISTRATION, 1748.

The approach of revolution. The unity of the human race. Its progress. History records that progress. The American Revolution. Its character and extent. Relation of the thirteen colonies to the metropolis. The duke of Newcastle as colonial minister. He retires. Succeeded by the duke of Bedford.—Page 1—17.

CHAPTER II.

THE ROYAL GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK APPEALS TO THE PARAMOUNT POWER OF GREAT BRITAIN—PELHAM'S ADMINISTRATION CONTINUED. 1748—1749.

Congress at Albany in 1748. Plans of Clinton and Colden. The Massachusetts delegation to the Congress. Shirley. Oliver and Hutchinson. Treaties with the Six Nations and the Miamis. Oliver and Hutchinson propose the interposition of the king to provide an American fund. Boundary claimed by the French. Indian mission and village at Ogdensburg. Shirley and Clinton advise coercion of the colonies by parliament. Murray the principal adviser. Clinton resolves to compel the interposition of parliament. Spirited resistance of the New York Assembly. Halifax becomes head of the Board of Trade. He finds France encroaching in America, and the colonies tending towards independence. South Carolina. North Carolina. Virginia. Pennsylvania. New England. New Jersey. Halifax seeks to confine France by planting a new colony in the Ohio valley. The French take measures to prevent it. Their claims in Acadia. Halifax plants a British colony in Nova Scotia. The Acadians. The Micmac Indians. The lords of trade go to parliament for absolute power. Protest of the colonies. Massachusetts becomes a hard money colony. Further intrigues of the crown officers in America. Firmness of the representatives of New York. Charles Townshend enters the Board of Trade. The colonies develop a life of their own.—Page 17—40.

CHAPTER III.

THE EXPLORATION OF OHIO — PELHAM'S ADMINISTRATION
CONTINUED. 1749—1751.

The ministry resolve on a new system of colonial administration. Zeal of Halifax and Bedford. Incessant importunities of crown officers in America. Stamp-tax proposed. Spirit of New England. Jonathan Mayhew. The British ministry persevere. New developments of the commercial system. The slave trade. Restrictions on American manufactures. The policy unwise. Prophecy of Turgot's. Divisions in the cabinet. The French and English in Nova Scotia. Halifax and Bedford disagree. Newcastle against Bedford. The English take Chiegnecto. British and French commissioners. A French brigantine seized. Vermont. The Ohio valley. Explored by Gist. The richness of its lands. Council at Picqua. Message to the English. To the French. Gist returns. Second journey of Croghan.—Page 40—59.

CHAPTER IV.

AMERICA REFUSES TO BE RULED BY ARBITRARY INSTRUCTIONS—
PELHAM'S ADMINISTRATION CONTINUED. 1751—1753.

Lords of trade renew their design. Calendar regulated. Plan for an American civil list. Postponed by division in the cabinet. Colonies left to protect themselves. Zeal of the French. Plan of union of the Americans. New powers of the Board of Trade. Relations with France in America. The French begin hostilities. Council at Shawnee Town. Dinwiddie's report. State of England. Measures of the Board of Trade. Discontent of the Western Indians. Decision of the king. The board busy in attempting to reduce New York. They fail.—Page 59—75.

CHAPTER V.

FRANKLIN PLANS UNION FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE—PELHAM'S
ADMINISTRATION CONTINUED. 1753—1754.

Progress of the French at the west. Protest of the Indians. Washington's mission to Fort Le Bœuf. The first fort at Pittsburg. Measures of the colonies. Plans for taxes by parliament. Washington marches towards the Ohio. The French at Pittsburg. Combat with Jumonville. The affair at Great Meadows. Congress at Albany. Treaty with the Six Nations. Franklin's plan of union. Franklin advises colonizing the west.—Page 75—90.

CHAPTER VI.

THE OLD THIRTEEN COLONIES—NEWCASTLE'S ADMINISTRATION.
1754.

The American colonies. Their population. White. Black. Georgia. South Carolina. North Carolina. Virginia. Maryland. Pennsylvania and Delaware. New Jersey. New York. New England. Its traditions. Its creed.—Page 90—112.

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER VII.

THE MINISTERS ARE ADVISED TO TAX AMERICA BY ACT OF PARLIAMENT—NEWCASTLE'S ADMINISTRATION. 1754—1755.

Newcastle first minister. Commons impatient of their subordination to the Lords. State of the Whig party. Policy towards New York. Plan of American union by Halifax. Parliament invoked to tax America. Grant of lands in the Great Western valley. Progress of affairs with France. Duke of Cumberland. Braddock appointed general in America. Mutiny Act. Regulation of quotas. Shirley's plans. Franklin's opinions of them. Shirley on Franklin. Want of concert among the colonies. Discussions with France. Braddock and five governors recommend taxation of America by parliament. Taxation advocated. Right of America to independence.—Page 112—129.

CHAPTER VIII.

ENGLAND AND FRANCE CONTEND FOR THE OHIO VALLEY AND FOR ACADIA—NEWCASTLE'S ADMINISTRATION CONTINUED. 1755.

Plan for 1755. Howe captures the Alcide and the Lys. Braddock advances slowly. The 9th of July. The battle. The defeat. Death of Braddock. General consternation. Peace among the Southern Indians. The Acadians. Their disaffection. They are disarmed. The English take Beau Séjour. The removal of the Acadians projected. Approved of by Belcher. Effected. Their sufferings.—Page 129—146.

CHAPTER IX.

GREAT BRITAIN UNITES AMERICA UNDER MILITARY RULE—NEWCASTLE'S ADMINISTRATION CONTINUED. 1755—1756.

American army at Lake George. Dieskau's approach. The battle. Shirley fails to reach Niagara. His opinion on independence. Musings of John Adams. French ships seized. England urges Russia to supervise Germany. Pitt opposes. Soame Jenyns and Rigby become lords of trade. Plans for 1756. Shirley proposes to the ministry a stamp-duty for America. Washington's self-sacrificing spirit. Affairs of Pennsylvania. Supremacy of the military in America. Appointment of Loudoun as commander-in-chief. Foreign officers employed. Cumberland thought of as king.—Page 147—164.

CHAPTER X.

THE WHIG ARISTOCRACY CANNOT GOVERN ENGLAND—NEWCASTLE'S ADMINISTRATION CONTINUED. 1755—1756.

Declaration of war against France. Rule of '56. Delay in preparations for war. Washington neglected. Soldiers billeted in private houses. Capture of Oswego by Montcalm. Loudoun uses his army only against the Americans. Affair of Kittanning.

Colony on the Santilla. Intrigues in the English court. Pitt forms a ministry without Newcastle. Pitt protects American liberty. Is dismissed.—Page 165—177.

CHAPTER XI.

THE WHIG ARISTOCRACY CANNOT CONQUER CANADA—ANARCHY IN THE ADMINISTRATION. 1757.

Adventures near Lake George. Congress at Philadelphia. State of Pennsylvania. Franklin, its agent. Summer wasted in America. Prince George takes an interest in the colonies. Siege of Fort William Henry. Its surrender. The massacre. Pusillanimity of the British officers. General discontent. The result. The aristocracy cannot rule without the people.—Page 178—192.

CHAPTER XII.

THE NEW PROTESTANT POWERS AGAINST THE CATHOLIC POWERS OF THE MIDDLE AGE—WILLIAM PITT'S MINISTRY. 1757.

No one dares take Pitt's place. He forms a ministry with Newcastle. The man of the people. The great question. The Catholic powers. Frederic of Prussia. State of France. The new alliances. Frederic invades Bohemia. His defeat at Colin. His retreat and reverses. Battle of Rossbach. New reverses in Silesia. Battle of Leuthen. Prussia saved.—Page 193—205.

CHAPTER XIII.

CONQUEST OF THE VALLEY OF THE WEST—WILLIAM PITT'S MINISTRY CONTINUED. 1757—1758.

Pitt plans the conquest of French America. Self-imposed taxes of Massachusetts. Sufferings of the Canadians. Amherst and Wolfe sent to America. Siege of Louisburgh. Its capture. Gathering of troops at Lake George. They embark for Ticonderoga. Death of Lord Howe. Abercrombie defeated by Montcalm. The retreat. Skirmishes. Bradstreet takes Oswego. Expedition to the west. Defeat of Grant. Washington in command of the advance party. His success. The naming of Pittsburg. Honours conferred on Washington.—Page 205—223.

CHAPTER XIV.

THE CONQUEST OF CANADA—PITT'S MINISTRY CONTINUED. 1759.

Plans for 1759. Successes of England. Lord George Sackville. Spirit of America. Niagara taken. Inactivity of Gage. Amherst reaches Crown Point. Wolfe and Saunders in the St. Lawrence. Wolfe offers battle. Is repulsed. Desponds. The brigadiers suggest a landing above the town. Wolfe prepares to execute it. The landing. The battle. Death of Wolfe. Of Montcalm. Surrender of Quebec.—Page 223—239.