A SEQUEL TO "IS RUSSIA WRONG?"

BY

A RUSSIAN LADY.

LONDON :

P. S. KING, CANADA BUILDINGS, KING STREET, WESTMINSTER.

1878.

P R E F A C E.

TOWARDS the close of last year a little volume of letters with a preface by Mr. Froude was published by Messrs. Hodder & Stoughton, under the title "Is RUSSIA WRONG?"

Most of the following letters like those of last year, were contributed to the Northern Echo, of Darlington, that courageous paper which from the very beginning has never wavered in its noble support of the oppressed Slavs.

These letters constituting the only contributions from a Russian point of view, which have appeared in the English press during the last twelve months, some indulgent friends have recommended their republication in the present shape as a sequel to the first series.

O.K.

1st December, 1878.
