

SIR WILLIAM LOCKHART.

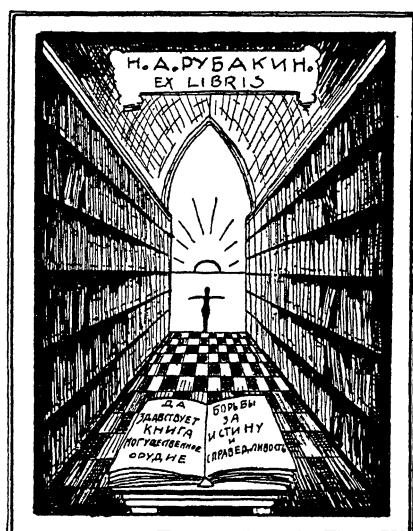

THE
HOUSE OF CROMWELL
AND THE
STORY OF DUNKIRK.

BY JAMES WAYLEN.

LONDON
CHAPMAN AND HALL, LIMITED, 193, PICCADILLY.

1880.

All Rights Reserved.

PRINTED BY
THE CITY OF LONDON PRINTING AND STATIONERY COMPANY, LIMITED,
3, BELL YARD—58, CITY ROAD.

DEDICATED

BY PERMISSION TO

THOMAS CARLYLE, ESQ.,

WHOSE "ELUCIDATIONS" OF OLIVER CROMWELL'S

LETTERS AND SPEECHES

HAVE ELEVATED OUR ADMIRATION OF THE PROTECTOR INTO LOVE.

LOUIS XIV placing the keys of DUNKIRK in the hands of Sir W^m · LOCKHART.

PREFACE.

THE following pages are primarily designed to contain genealogical tables of the Protector Oliver's descendants to the present day, and thus to carry down through another century the family history which terminated in 1785 with the publication of Mark Noble's History of the Protectoral House.