A YANKEE IN CANADA.

"New England is by some affirmed to be an island, bounded on the north with the River Canada (so called from Monsieur Cane)." — JOSSELYN'S RARITIES.

And still older, in Thomas Morton's "New English Canaan," published in 1632, it is said, on page 97, "From this Lake [Brocoise] Northwards is derived the famous River of Canada, so named, of Monsier de Cane, a French Lord, who first planted a Colony of French in America."
