IN presenting the first publication of the revived Eastern Church Association to its members, a few words are, perhaps, necessary to explain the object in view. The aim of the Association is to disseminate as accurate information as is possible about the Eastern Churches, whether concerning their history and formal teaching or their actual condition. The time is gone by when it is wise to be satisfied with half-truths or incorrect and one-sided information. There are no books which show more accurately the historical and doctrinal position of a Church than its Liturgies and other services. It is hoped, therefore, that the publication of this work will help to give a clear idea of the formal and professed teaching of what is by no means the least interesting of the separated Churches of the East—one, too, which
