

· · · · · Ä

COLLECTION OF
BRITISH AUTHORS.
VOL. CCLXXV.

HISTORY OF ENGLAND BY LORD MAHON.

IN SEVEN VOLUMES.

VOL. VII.

· · · · · Ä

HISTORY OF ENGLAND

FROM
THE PEACE OF UTRECHT TO THE PEACE OF VERSAILLES.

1713—1783.

BY LORD MAHON.

COPYRIGHT EDITION.

IN SEVEN VOLUMES. — VOL. VII.

1780—1783.

LEIPZIG

BERNHARD TAUCHNITZ

1854.

CONTENTS OF VOLUME VII.

A. D.	CHAPTER LXI.	Page
1780.	Rising ferment on Economical Reform	1
	Motions by Richmond and Shelburne	2
	Great meeting at York	3
	Other meetings	ib.
	Great speech of Burke	4
	Details of his scheme	5
	His eloquence	6
	The Pension List	7
	Defence by Lord Nugent	8
	Case of the Miss Careys	ib.
	Duel fought by Fox	10
	Another by Shelburne	ib.
	Sir James Lowther's rebuke of duellists	ib.
	The Speaker's complaint of Lord North	11
	Bills to disqualify Revenue Officers	12
	And to exclude Contractors	ib.
	Meeting in Westminster	13
	Resolutions moved by Dunning against the influence of the Crown	ib.
	Amendment by Henry Dundas	14
	The Resolutions are carried	15
	No great result ensues	16
	The Protestant Associations	17
	Lord George Gordon	ib.
	Relief of Protestant Dissenters	ib.
	Procession to the Houses of Parliament	18
	Tumult in Palace Yard	19
	The Peers assailed	ib.
	Tumult in the Commons' lobby	21
	Colonels Murray and Holroyd	22
	Lord Mahon	23
	Burning of Roman Catholic chapels	25
	The King's Proclamation	ib.
	Riots renewed	26
	Proceedings in the House of Lords	ib.
	And in the House of Commons	ib.
	The "No Popery" cry	28
	Newgate burst open and burnt	ib.
	Lord Mansfield's house assailed	29
	Havoc by the rioters	ib.
	Terror and supineness of the magistrates	30

A. D.		Page
1780.	Extent of the public dismay	31
	The Jews of the Houndsditch	ib.
	Two attempts upon the Bank of England	32
	Thirty-six conflagrations at night	ib.
	Energy and firmness of the King	33
	The riots are suppressed	35
	Lord George Gordon arrested	36
	Newspaper paragraphs	37
	Danger of Burke and his family	ib.
	Lord Mansfield's speech	38
	Burke and Lord North in concert	40
	Change of opinion in Savile	ib.
	Wedderburn becomes Lord Chief Justice	41
	The Special Commission	42

CHAPTER LXII.

Rodney defeats Don Juan de Langara	43
And relieves Gibraltar	ib.
Claims of Neutral nations	44
Capture of a Dutch convoy	45
Resentment of the Empress Catherine	46
The Armed Neutrality	ib.
The campaign in North America	47
Siege and capture of Charleston	48
Action at Wax-haws	49
Earl Cornwallis	ib.
Lord Rawdon (Earl of Moira)	50
Post at "Ninety-six"	51
Battle of Camden	52
Severities of Lord Cornwallis	ib.
Surprise at the King's Mountain	54
Washington levies contributions	ib.
La Fayette returns	55
Comte de Rochambeau	ib.
The French fleet blockaded	56
Meeting of Washington and Rochambeau	57
The American head-quarters described	58
A review at Philadelphia	59
Career of General Arnold	ib.
His treacherous correspondence with Clinton	60
His command at West Point	61
Major André	62
Secret meeting between them	63
André arrested	ib.
Arnold makes his escape	64
Washington arrives at West Point	65
The plot of Arnold discovered	66
André brought to trial	67
And condemned to death	68
Warm intercessions in his favour	69
His serene and manly firmness	70
Hanged as a spy	71

A. D.		Page
1780.	Monument to him in Westminster Abbey	71
	Was his sentence justified?	72
	Sternness of Washington	73

CHAPTER LXIII.

	Offers to the Opposition in England	75
	Parliament suddenly dissolved	76
	New elections	77
	William Pitt	78
	Thomas Grenville	79
	Parliament meets	80
	A new Speaker chosen	ib.
	Slight effect of the Armed Neutrality	81
	Secret overture of Necker for peace	82
	War with Holland	83
1781.	Debates in Parliament	84
	Thomas Erskine	85
	His defence of Captain Baillie	86
	Of Admiral Keppel	88
	And of Lord George Gordon	ib.
	His subsequent career and character	89
	Sir Philip Clerke and Mr. Crewe	92
	Provincial delegates chosen	ib.
	Their proceedings in London	93
	First speech of Sheridan	94
	And of Pitt	ib.
	Pitt's rising fame	95
	Descent of the French upon Jersey	96
	Gibraltar again relieved	ib.
	Landing of the French and Spaniards in Minorca	ib.
	Resolute defence of General Murray	97
	Action off the Dogger Bank	98
	Capture of St. Eustatia	99
	Severities of Rodney	100
	French Armament	101
	He returns to England	102

CHAPTER LXIV.

	Descent upon Virginia	103
	Mutiny in the American troops	ib.
	Prisoners exchanged	104
	General Greene	105
	Campaign in the Carolinas	106
	Action at the Cow-pens	107
	Battle of Guilford	108
	March of Lord Cornwallis to Virginia	109
	Plans of Washington	110
	Precipitate retreat of La Fayette	ib.
	Action at Hobkirk's Hill	111
	Case of Colonel Hayne	112