

A Man : His Mark

By the Same Author

BOHEMIAN PARIS OF TO-DAY

WRITTEN BY W. C. MORROW FROM NOTES BY EDOUARD CUCUEL

With One Hundred and Six Illustrations by EDOUARD CUCUEL

Svo. Ornamentally Bound, $3.50

A complete picture of the Parisian life of the Latin Quarter and Montmartre

Of special interest owing to the Paris Exhibition of 1900

THE APE, THE IDIOT, AND OTHER PEOPLE

Ornamentally Bound, Deckle Edges, $1.25

"The touch throughout is unmistakably that of a writer of superior gifts and superior art."—Chicago Journal

"All the stories reveal literary art of exceptional quality, and their variety manifests extraordinary powers of imagination."— Philadelphia Press

"One recognizes that it is well written, that there is power in its pages, and one reads on to the end."—Boston Times

"Mr. Morrow's stories are striking, picturesque, and of unusual interest. He writes a peculiarly virile style, and never chooses a hackneyed subject."—New Orleans Picayune

A Man: His Mark

A Romance

By

W. C. Morrow

Author of "Bohemian Paris of To-Day," "The Ape, The Idiot, and Other People," etc.

With a Frontispiece by

Elenore Plaisted Abbott

Philadelphia & London
J. B. Lippincott Company

1900