NOTICE TO THIS EDITION.

THE Editor of the 'Hand-book for Travellers in France' requests that travellers who may, in the use of the Work, detect any faults or omissions which they can correct from personal knowledge, will have the kindness to mark them down on the spot and communicate to him a notice of the same, favouring him at the same time with their names—addressed to the care of Mr. Murray, Albemarle Street. They may be reminded that by such communications they are not merely furnishing the means of improving the Hand-book, but are contributing to the benefit, information, and comfort of future travellers in general.

. No attention can be paid to letters from innkeepers in praise of their own houses; and the postage of them is so onerous that they cannot be received.

CAUTION TO TRAVELLERS.—By a recent Act of Parliament the introduction into England of foreign pirated Editions of the works of British authors, in which the copyright subsists, is totally prohibited. Travellers will therefore bear in mind that even a single copy is contraband, and is liable to seizure at the English Custom-house.

CAUTION TO INNKEEPERS AND OTHERS.—The Editor of the Hand-books has learned from various quarters that a person or persons have of late been extorting money from innkeepers, tradespeople, artists, and others, on the Continent, under pretext of procuring recommendations and favourable notices of them and their establishments in the Hand-books for Travellers. The Editor, therefore, thinks proper to warn all whom it may concern, that recommendations in the Hand-books are not to be obtained by purchase, and that the persons alluded to are not only unauthorised by him, but are totally unknown to him. All those, therefore, who put confidence in such promises may rest assured that they will be defrauded of their money without attaining their object. English travellers are requested to explain this to Innkeepers in remote situations, who are liable to become victims to such impositions. Notices to this effect have been inserted by the Editor in the principal English and Foreign newspapers.—1847.

P R E F A C E.

THE Hand-book for France is the result of four or five journeys undertaken at different times between 1830 and 1841 ; and the Editor has covered the ground with a network of routes, described from personal observation, extending from Dunkirk to St. Jean de Luz ; from Toulon and Hyères to Brest ; from Grenoble and the Grande Chartreuse through Aubenas and Aurillac to the Port de Venasque ; and from Cherbourg and Mont St. Michel to Briançon and Embrun, and including the almost entire circuit of France. But in so vast a field many interstices have been left to be filled up by the best printed information ; and that so meagre in some respects, so abundant and scattered in others, that the collecting and arranging of the materials has been a work of very serious labour. The materials, indeed, for describing a large part of France are far more scanty than those which present themselves for Germany and Switzerland ; and the writer may fairly say, that he has, in the following pages, laid down routes of which no account is to be found in French Guides. It would be unjust to omit to mention the admirable Guides of Vaysse de Villiers, from which he has derived essential information ; but though they extend to nearly twenty volumes, they comprise only a small part of France, and only portions of their contents are calculated to interest English travellers. For their use this volume is compiled ; and if any French readers think fit to take it up, they must not be surprised to find many details well known to them, and doubtless many errors, not a few of which will be equally discernible by the Editor's own countrymen. He trusts that in the statement of
